Brooke is responsible for shaping Ernst & Young's positions on public policy. She engages with regulators, policy makers, business leaders, investors and other key stakeholders around the world to address critical issues facing the profession's most prominent voices in the public policy arena.

Since joining Ernst & Young in 1981, she has held a number of leadership roles, including U.S. National Director of Tax Advisory Services, and Global & Americas Vice Chair for Public Policy, Sustainability and Stakeholder Engagement. Brooke also served in the U.S. Department of Treasury during the Clinton Administration, where she was responsible for all tax policy matters related to insurance and managed care, and played important roles in the healthcare reform and Superfund efforts. A Certified Public Accountant and Fellow of Life Management Institute, Brooke has a bachelor's degree and an honorary doctorate from Purdue University.

Through a partnership with WFYI Public Media — Indiana's flagship NPR and PBS member stations — The Economic Club of Indiana's presentations are recorded by 90.1 WFYI Public Radio for broadcast on the first Monday of each month at 1 pm. The programs are also available as an audio podcast on WFYI's website: www.wfyi.org Production and broadcast of the Club's presentations on WFYI Public Radio are supported in part by the Lumina Foundation.
