The Economic Club of Indiana selected officers for the 2014-2015 Season, and welcomed two incoming board members at its annual meeting on April 11.

The Club's new roster of officers includes Sherry Seiwert, President (President, Indianapolis Downtown, Inc.); Matt Gutwein, Vice President (President and CEO, Health and Hospital Corporation); John M. Mead, Secretary/COO (Attorney, Leeuw Oberlies & Campbell, P.C.); George S. Farra, Treasurer (Principal, Woodley Farra Manion Portfolio Management); and Brooke Huntington, Program Chair (President & CEO, EmployIndy).

The Economic Club of Indiana also welcomed two new members to its board of governors for a three-year term, Korlon Kilpatrick (Director, Regulatory Affairs, Citizens Energy) and Tarra Ryker (Vice President, Global Communications, Eli Lilly and Company). The immediate past president, Deborah Daniels (Partner, Krieg DeVault) and immediate past program chair, Michael Miller (Principal, Centerfield Capital partners) will serve another three-year term as members of the board.

Additionally, five board members were nominated to renewed terms of service. They include Theodore R. Boehm (Mediator-Arbitrator, Van Winkle Baten); Ann D. Murtlow (President & CEO, United Way of Central Indiana); Edie Olson (President, Families First); Wayne Schmidt (CEO/Principal, Schmidt Associates); and William B. Stephan (Vice President for Engagement, Indiana University).

Celebrating its 40th anniversary this year, The Economic Club of Indiana seeks to provide a forum for thoughtful public policy and economic issues through a series of luncheon events featuring some of the nation's most preeminent speakers. The Club's 2013-2014 season will conclude on May 14, with a presentation by one of the world's leading young economists, Roland Fryar, founder of Education Innovation Laboratory at Harvard University and Robert M. Beren Professor of Economics at Harvard University.
