Gary Doer, Ambassador of Canada to the United States of America, will be the featured luncheon speaker at The Economic Club of Indiana's Monday, October 28 program. The Club's series of luncheon forums begin at noon, and take place at the Indiana Convention Center (100 South Capital Ave., Indianapolis 46225). For more information about The Economic Club of Indiana's 2013-2014 Season, visit www.economicclubofindiana.org

Since 2009, Ambassador Doer has served as Canada's 23rd representative to the United States of America. Canada is the United States' largest customer. The economic prosperity of the two countries is intertwined, with two-way goods and services totaling $710 billion. More than 8 million U.S. jobs depend on trade and investment with Canada. Similarly, Canada is America's largest and most secure energy supplier.

Prior to assuming his current post in Washington, Ambassador Doer served as Premier of Manitoba for ten years. During that time, he worked extensively with U.S. Governors to enhance Canada - U.S. cooperation on trade, agriculture, water pollution, climate change and renewable energy. In 2005, he was named by Business Week magazine as one of the top 20 international leaders on climate change.

Through a partnership with WFYI Public Media — Indiana's flagship NPR and PBS member stations — The Economic Club of Indiana's presentations are recorded by 90.1 WFYI Public Radio for broadcast on the first Monday of each month at 1 pm. The programs are also available as an audio podcast on WFYI's website: www.wfyi.org Production and broadcast of the Club's presentations on WFYI Public Radio are supported in part by the Lumina Foundation.
