A Between the Lions game for two or more players.

Print out the game board and game pieces (the category cards).
Cut the cards out and shuffle them into a pile.

Find some coins. All players choose a different coin to be their playing piece. Place all the coins on the A space. The youngest person goes first.

You have to hop your coin from A to Z. To move, you pick a card from the pile, and follow its instructions.

For example, let's say your coin is on D.

You pick a sentence that says, "Name something unusual Theo would find down the back of the sofa. (Move 1 space.)"

You must think of an unusual something that begins with D. It can be a single word or a phrase. You could say "Doughnut," since a doughnut would certainly be a surprise in any sofa, and, importantly, it begins with D. You would then move your coin 1 letter ahead—in this case to E—and wait for your next turn, when you would have to think of a word that begins with E.
