Mission

As a trusted catalyst for lifelong learning, WFYI Public Media engages and enriches our community through distinctive programs and services.

Vision

WFYI Public Media is a center of discovery for all ages. Through unique programs, services and emerging technologies, we will be a leading community resource, empowering people to discover their world, broaden their horizons and become active participants in shaping the future. Through these efforts, WFYI builds communities and strengthens families in central Indiana.

"Public radio and television are the last bastions of accessible independent thought in this country, and I appreciate the efforts of WFYI in bringing the larger world to my doorstep."

Message from the President and the Board Chair

WFYI President & CEO
Lloyd Wright and WFYI
Board Chair Julie A. Davis.

As we reflect back on 2012 we wanted to share some of the year's highlights with you in this Annual Report.

First, we want to personally thank you for your commitment to WFYI Public Media. Your gifts of time, treasure and advocacy are priceless. They not only make the award-winning local and national radio and television programming possible, they also strengthen our community with opportunities of life-long enrichment that only public service media can deliver.

Quality local television productions were, once again, the hallmark of WFYI in 2012. The WFYI Productions team worked with area partners to produce quality local television programming. These local productions earned seven regional Emmy Awards and two awards from the Indianapolis chapter of the Society of Professional Journalists (SPJ).

The WFYI Public Radio news team earned four awards from the Indianapolis chapter of the SPJ. This same news team also received two awards from the Indiana AP Broadcasters Association, as well as a Spectrum Award from the Indiana Broadcasters Association for "Best Cultural Programming." And for the second consecutive year, 90.1 WFYI was voted "Best Radio Station" in Indianapolis by the readers of NUVO Newsweekly.

Through your support, WFYI Public Media was able to amplify its impact beyond traditional broadcasting directly into the lives of Hoosiers. We expanded our groundbreaking efforts of American Graduate: Let's Make it Happen, inspiring direct community action to improve the high school graduation rate in Central Indiana. In collaboration with community partners, WFYI deployed its station resources to focus on four key areas: health, education, the arts and news/public affairs.

WFYI has been able to enhance its exemplary services to the Central Indiana community through the generosity of individual members, volunteers, corporate sponsors, foundations and community partners.

Read this report and join us. Find a way to get involved alongside WFYI to make Central Indiana a better place to live, work and learn.

We're WFYI Public Media - we share your commitment to our community.

WFYI Community Engagement

WFYI's focus on community engagement and education sets it apart from other broadcasters. WFYI's efforts extend radio and television programming through community conversations, workshops, forums, training opportunities and tools for educators and students.

Dealing with the drop out issue is critical to the future of our community and country. Our involvement with American Graduate is about improving youth outcomes. WFYI believes an American Graduate is more than a high school diploma. An American Graduate is a successful adult. Harnessing the technology and educational resources of public media along with a unified community response provides opportunities to address the issues in new and innovative ways.

WFYI partners with more than 40 community organizations. WFYI staff members volunteer regularly in a local middle school, and WFYI provides parents, educators, students and community organizations with tools and resources. WFYI hosted more than 1,500 guests at conversations about education, convened two public policy summits on education issues, helped to recruit tutors and mentors, and produced more than 20 television spots highlighting effective practices.

WFYI dedicated 17 hours of airtime - more than any other station in the nation - to televising American Graduate Day's local and national programming. WFYI radio produced 34 weekly news reports, eight No Limits call-in programs, and stories contributed by young reporters. All of this was designed to raise awareness, stimulate conversation and encourage action.

IndyTalks encourages residents to converse, connect and create through meaningful civic dialogue about Central Indiana's future. WFYI is a cofounder of the IndyTalks initiative, now in its third year.

It was play time at WFYI's 2012 Spirited Chase. This popular event, part of the Spirit and Place Festival, sent participants to seven mystery destinations all over Indianapolis to experience "Play" in new ways.

PBS Learning Media in Indiana delivers high-quality digital resources to classrooms daily. Students learn more and are engaged in content that enriches and inspires learning. In addition, Indiana educators learn new skills through PBS TeacherLine.

WFYI Public Television

WFYI presents high-caliber public affairs and educational television programs exclusively on three digital channels - WFYI 1 (HD 20.1), WFYI 2 (DT 20.2) and WFYI 3 (DT 20.3).

Twenty-seven new locally-produced documentaries premiered in 2012, showcasing everything from Indianapolis Super Bowl Legacy projects, to barn dances, to the history of aviation in Indiana.

These programs joined a lineup of WFYI signature series including Indiana Expeditions with Rick Crosslin, Indiana Lawmakers, Indiana Week in Review, Across Indiana and Inside Indiana Business with Gerry Dick.

WFYI's talented team of producers was nominated for 16 Regional Emmy Awards in 2012. Projects done by, or in partnership with, WFYI earned seven Regional Emmy Awards, and two additional awards from the Indianapolis chapter of the Society of Professional Journalists.

WFYI Public Television reaches
more than 450,000
viewers weekly.

WFYI Public Radio

WFYI Public Radio programs earned four awards from the Indianapolis chapter of the SPJ and a Spectrum Award from the Indiana Broadcasters Association for "Best Cultural Programming."

WFYI's award-winning broadcasters delivered timely reports about activities at the Statehouse, local and national elections, as well as concerns surrounding health, education, the arts and more. For the second consecutive year, the station was voted the "Best of Indy" by the readers of NUVO Newsweekly in the newspaper's annual Best of Indy competition.

WFYI Public Radio offers two distinct services over the air and online. 90.1 WFYI-HD1 offers a mix of national and local arts and public affairs programs like No Limits, Indiana Week in Review, Indiana Lawmakers, The Art of the Matter, The Blues House Party and Sound Medicine - a partnership with the Indiana University School of Medicine.

WFYI's second service 90.1 WFYI-HD2 - The Point presents XPoNential Radio, Radiolab, The Moth Radio Hour along with local favorites like Film Soceyology and The Cool Down.

WFYI
Public Radio reaches more than 152,000 listeners
each week.

Public Radio for Central Indiana

Through college partnerships with Franklin College, to the south, and Wabash College, to the west, WFYI extends its radio service to more Indiana listeners. WFYI provides NPR, PRI and BBC programming on the student-run radio stations.

WFYI Interactive Media

WFYI's online services provide interactive experiences to complement many local and national broadcasts on television and radio. Online links to additional content, video, audio and more, are designed to provide a more enhanced viewer and listener experience.

The site provides access to searchable schedules for each of WFYI's television and radio services.

Thanks to an extensive archive and rich library of audio and video podcasts, visitors can also listen to past radio productions and watch WFYI local productions.

The website also features WFYI's special events, upcoming volunteer opportunities and links to professional development courses for Hoosier educators through PBS TeacherLine. Additional resources related to local productions including bonus video and teacher toolkits are also provided through the site.

Through its presence on social media, WFYI engages with thousands of viewers and listeners on Twitter, Facebook, YouTube, Pinterest and Flickr.

Indiana Week in Review viewers and listeners are notified about weekly topics and invited to participate in an online viewer/listener poll through a partnership with Ice Miller LLP.

IRIS

Indiana Reading and Information Services (IRIS) is a free on-demand communications link for Central Indiana residents who are print impaired.

IRIS staff and volunteers provide this service for those who cannot read normal print - due to blindness, low vision, physical impairments, illness, learning disorders or illiteracy - allowing them to stay connected with their communities through local news and information, or to relax with a good book.

Every day, IRIS provides readings of regional newspapers and many other Indianapolis publications to certified listeners with special, custom-built radio receivers - provided free of charge to use as long as they are needed. The radio broadcast signal stretches 45 miles beyond Indianapolis.

IRIS broadcasts are also available via audio streaming on the through the Nina Mason Pulliam On Demand Service, allowing users to access the service anywhere there is an Internet connection. Access is available to anyone with the proper certification.

If you know someone who could benefit from this service, please contact WFYI for details.

Community Events

In March, WFYI's 13th annual Ice Miller Indy Wine Fest drew a crowd of more than 1,000 wine enthusiasts to the Indiana Roof Ballroom. Local wineries and other wine experts shared their vintages from across the state and around the world.

WFYI's free family festival, PBS KIDS in the Park, presented by Marsh, returned to Military Park in White River State Park in June. For its 19th year, the station's gift back to the community treated 40,000 people to visits with PBS KIDS characters, entertainment and hands-on family fun in downtown Indianapolis. The largest PBS KIDS event of its kind in the nation featured local and national entertainers and celebrities, including Shock from the Electric Company and Mr. McFeely from Mister Rogers' Neighborhood. Families also enjoyed educational activities reinforcing WFYI's American Graduate: Let's Make it Happen initiative.

In July, the second annual WFYI Golf Scramble, presented by Faegre Baker Daniels, rewarded golfers with a beautiful day at Prairie View Golf Club. The event brought together WFYI supporters and celebrities for a fun-filled day of golf and camaraderie.

WFYI continued its 15-year commitment to women's health and wellness at Women, Wisdom & Wellness, presented by St.Vincent Women's Services, in August. A fresh focus, new name, new location and boutique attracted more than 600 women to the daylong event. Central Indiana health-related organizations also provided health screenings and information throughout the venue.

WFYI amplified the voices of the arts community at the Penrod Arts Fair in September. A live radio broadcast of The Art of the Matter raised the profile of our cultural partners and the WFYI Blues Tent, sponsored by Katz & Korin PC, was the place to be.

An estimated 40,000 people attended the 2012 PBS KIDS in the Park, making it one of the largest PBS KIDS events in the country.

Volunteers

The spirit of volunteerism remains important to public broadcasting. At WFYI hundreds of volunteers donate their time to answer the phones during television and radio membership drives, prepare weekly mailings every Thursday morning, serve as on-air pledge talent, and are an integral part of the Indiana Reading and Information Services.

Volunteers are also vital to WFYI's efforts to connect with the community through signature events like WFYI's PBS KIDS in the Park, the Ice Miller Indy Wine Fest, Women, Wisdom & Wellness, The WFYI Golf Scramble and Spirited Chase.

More than
1,400 individuals volunteered with WFYI in 2012.

More than 1,400 people volunteered at WFYI for a total of more than 16,500 hours. These hours provided additional human resources valued at nearly $353,000.

There is always room for more volunteers. If you know someone who is looking for a place to serve, tell them about volunteering at WFYI.

The Year in Brief

January

The highly-anticipated second season of Masterpiece's Downton Abbey airs on WFYI Public Television. The wildly popular and critically-acclaimed costume drama attracted record-breaking audiences to public television.

Indiana Lawmakers begins its 31st year of bringing you news from the State House to your house, and examining the issues and agendas before the state legislature on WFYI 1 and 90.1 WFYI Public Radio.

IndyTalks, a citywide effort to promote respectful and creative civic dialogue - kicks off its third year on the public affairs program No Limits. WFYI is one of a dozen community organizations that partnered to create the on-going initiative.

February

WFYI explores the issue of healthcare with the local production All Healthcare is Local: The Emergence of Healthier Communities. Viewers see a lively exchange of ideas and encouragement about ways to improve community health and accessibility to affordable healthcare.

March

The Ice Miller Indy Wine Fest, presented by Ice Miller LLP, and hosted by WFYI, moves to a new month, but continues to attract wine enthusiasts and novices alike. During this elegant evening, wine experts share their knowledge of fine wines from across the state and around the world.

April

WFYI partners with MarketVibes, an Kokomo-based research firm, to bring a new research facility to downtown Indianapolis. MarketVibes Research @ WFYI is located at 1630 N. Meridian St., and provides researchers, moderators and companies with a state-of-the-art facility for focus groups, product testing, one-on-one interviews and more.

WFYI serves its volunteers during the annual volunteer recognition luncheon. More than 1,400 volunteers provided over 16,500 hours of service throughout the year.

May

WFYI 1 dedicates an unprecedented 17 hours of airtime to an education marathon as part of its American Graduate initiative. This multi-year partnership with local public media stations, schools and organizations has one goal in mind - increasing Indiana's high school graduation rate. The American Graduate Day marathon covered education issues from local, national and international perspectives. The broadcast also highlighted more than a dozen local organizations working to reduce the high school dropout rate.

June

PBS KIDS in the Park, presented by Marsh, returns to Military Park in White River State Park. For 19 years, this free celebration has drawn thousands of families to a day of entertainment, activities and opportunities to meet some of their favorite PBS KIDS characters, including Shock from the Electric Company.

The Year in Brief

July

August

WFYI continues its commitment to women's health with a new event, in a new venue - Women, Wisdom & Wellness, presented by St.Vincent Women's Services. The Indianapolis Marriott Downtown served as the backdrop for this initiative that provided attendees opportunities to learn about health and wellness topics through dynamic keynote speakers, breakout sessions and screenings by local healthcare organizations.

WFYI and Clifford the Big Red Dog spend the day greeting visitors at the Indiana State Fair.

September

WFYI Public Radio is voted the "Best Radio Station" in Indianapolis by the readers of NUVO Newsweekly for the second consecutive year. The announcement was made in the paper's annual Best of Indy special issue and celebrated at a downtown party.

WFYI participates in the Penrod Arts Fair, broadcasting The Art of the Matter Live from Penrod, sponsored by Katz & Korin PC, from the grounds of the Indianapolis Museum of Art.

IRIS

WFYI's Indiana Reading and Information Services (IRIS) provides around-the-clock access to the written word through a local broadcast service. Each day more than 3,200 Hoosiers with print-impairments have access to newspapers, magazines, literary words and more through IRIS. Thank you to the more than 140 community volunteers who help make this possible. Thank you also to the following donors who contributed $500 or more during 2012.

$1,000 - $2,499

Mrs. Kelli J. Ellis

$500 - $999

Baldwin & Lyons Inc
Ms. Robin J. Meyer
Mrs. Linda S. Stark

Planned Gifts

WFYI recognizes and honors viewers and listeners who have planned for the continuation of great public broadcasting programs through their estate plans. The consideration of the donors listed below ensures the success of public broadcasting in our community in perpetuity. For more information about including WFYI in your estate plans, please contact Tracy Mitchell, Director of Donor Engagement, at (317) 614-0439 or tmitchell@wfyi.org.
